

GlassCraft Door Company Ad & Image Agreement

GlassCraft Door Company will provide available graphic images and digital representation and photos of our products to _____ (customer) exclusively for their use in the customer's marketing efforts of GlassCraft Door products.

Customer will provide GlassCraft Door Corp. with a representation of the marketing piece by email or by fax or delivery prior to publication or printing of the piece for approval by GlassCraft Door Corp. This prior approval is required by GlassCraft for each individual and specific marketing effort created by the customer or the customer's agents. If approval by GlassCraft is not received in writing by customer, then Customer agrees to not use the GlassCraft product image.

GlassCraft Door Corp. reserves the right to request changes in the Customer's marketing of GlassCraft products where GlassCraft product and graphic images are represented, or where any image of GlassCraft's copyrighted designs are concerned. Such changes could include the Customer's cessation of use of GlassCraft's graphic images and product representation if requested by GlassCraft. This cessation of use requirement by GlassCraft could occur even if prior approval for the marketing effort was given by GlassCraft to the customer.

Customer will agree to making these changes within 30 days of notification of GlassCraft of these changes, or customer will cease their usage of the graphic image within the same 30 day period.
